My dear Miss Parlow,
When I left your festival of music and song the other evening I just said "Thankyou".
That was brief but not very witty on my part.

I was, however, just about carried off my feet by the greatness of your playing.
I was amazed beyond words at the ease and perfection of control you have in producing your various effects. And there is no lack of variety in those effects.

Every stroke did his job, whether it was a quiet sweet tone or a thrilling crescendo.

The singing of Madame Casselis (is that the spelling?) was very wonderful.
It was a thrilling evening, and one we cannot repay in kind.

Both my wife & I are grateful to you and your mother for giving us this treat.

With warm regards to you both.

Yours very sincerely

John Angel
